CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. David Brewer, of Mercer, performed his 4,497th marriage Friday.

The first ballots for a successor to Pope Leo XIII. resulted in no election.

Revs. W. A. Schell and B. Helm will begin a 10-days' meeting at the Walnut Flat church on Friday night next, 7th.

A church in the neighborhood of New York has thought it necessary, in order to raise money to build an extension, to ask each saloon keeper in the parish to give one day's receipts each month for four months to the building fund.

The greatest religious meeting in the history of Harrodsburg is over but its influence will be felt for years. There were 229 professions and conversions, of which 153 are men and boys and 76 girls and women, just the reverse of the usual proportion. But these were only the outward results. The church and whole community have been quickened spiritually, and all are more ready to work than ever before. As the meeting drew to a close the interest became intense and the christian workers more zealous. The climax was reached Sunday. No less than 1,200 came to the morning service and at night fully 1,000 more simply packed the academy yard. It was before such a vast congregation that Mr. Williams preached his farewell sermon, the last appeal was made to those out of Christ and over a score accepted salvation.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

Special Judge Robbins convened the Scott circuit court at Georgetown yesterday to try Caleb Powers for alleged complicity in the assassination of William Goebel. There will be considerable new evidence and a notable witness will be Henry E. Youtsey, now serving a life term for his share in the crime. The jury may be obtained from Bourbon county. The defense may move for a continuance.

Mr. Clarence Coleman and Miss Dean Adams attended the fair Thursday, but Mack Coulter remained at home in sorrow.

T. Durham near the tollgate north of Middleburg. Frank L. Jones has returned from Burnside. The climate did not suit him there. We are glad to have him back in our town again. Dye was at Hustonville last week assisting liveryman G. A. Alford in his stable. Thomas Benson was at W. T. Coulter's again last week. This section of the county was well represented at the Hustonville fair. Most everybody was anxious to see Gov. Beckham. Elmer C. Jones, wife and son of Trenton, Mo., arrived at his father's M. W. Jones' Tuesday. His many friends and relatives in this county are glad to see him again. Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on a snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone 100 to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in use for these diseases. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

About The Court House.

The Grand Jury having by its written report to the circuit court condemned the court house and said report having been presented to the fiscal court, which court upon consideration, after having been fully advised as to cost of needed repairs or remodeling of same and after ascertaining that the cost of necessary repairs would approximate the cost of a new building and upon the whole matter entered an order calling an election on the proposition, as under the law it was compelled to do. In order that the court might be fully satisfied it secured the services of an experienced architect to examine the building and submit his report in writing to the court, which is as follows:

The court house is provided by a community for its courts of justice, the necessary offices and preservation of records in a safe and accessible manner. A personal examination has revealed the following points in which this court house does not meet its requirements:

FOUNDATION.—There being no basement, the earth being above the brick line in places, and lack of ventilation has caused dampness to enter the building as shown by swelling of the floor and hall, falling of plaster from the brick walls with the destruction of mortar in the joints and the gradual weakening of the bricks themselves. Two thirds of the weight of the court house floor (upwards of 150,000 pounds when crowded) rests on the hall partitions which are wood and already very badly affected by the dry rot and liable to give way under any unusual load at any time. Vault floors of brick on earth filling can not be ventilated, but carry moisture and thus assist in destruction of records.

WALLS.—They have been previously repaired and strengthened by hog-chains; constructed of very porous brick and mortar that does not reduce the porosity; are very badly out of line and plumb and show numerous cracks that are becoming serious. As an example, the entrance arch may be affected by the first freezing after a rain and cause a brick to loosen and drop on the head of the first one to enter. Pointing up cracks only hides defects.

ROOF.—Leaks in the roof, like dampness from the ground, have caused plaster to fall from walls and ceilings; destroyed the strength of brick and mortar; started decay in timbers of the roof. Trusses are badly constructed and show a settlement of four inches under the tower.

TOWER.—The clock tower (weighing 35 tons, half supported by the front walls and half by the trusses forming the roof) is a very serious menace to the life of every person who enters the building. A heavy wind from the front will exert a greater pressure on the tower than the trusses are capable of sustaining in their present condition, weakened as they are by weather cracks and rot, which greatly reduces their original strength.

REMEDY.—To prevent dampness from entering the building and destroying valuable records, the following features are essential:

- 1st. Basement under entire building. Impracticable in present building.
- 2nd. Entire building heated by steam or hot air. Fires within record room may destroy contents.
- 3rd. Hollow walls, or faced with semi-vitrified brick or stone.
- 4th. A roof (of whatever material) that is water proof, and finally for the safety of the public the clock tower should rest on solid foundation from ground up. Respt. submitted.

There is no loss of time when it is used, as one or two doses of it will cure any ordinary attack. It never fails, not even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

ALTHOUGH a woman is generally considered an old maid at 25, it is now conceded by many shrewd judges of the sex that woman's beauty is most splendid and her intellect is in full maturity at 28 years. Cleopatra was 28 when she first met Antony and enslaved the handsomest man in the whole Roman empire, as well as one of the greatest orators, generals and statesmen. The queen of Sheba was 28 when she dazzled Solomon nearly off his throne. The marquise de Pompadour was 25 when she met Louis XV. and 28 when she began to rule his domains. Josephine captured Napoleon at 33, it is true, but she was a widow at whom he had been casting sheep's eyes for five years.

ACCORDING to the Chicago Chronicle there have been 50 lynchings in the United States so far this year. Six of the victims were white and 44 Negroes. Forty-four of the lynchings occurred in the South and five in the North. Mississippi heads the list with 11. Georgia comes next with six, Florida, Texas and Louisiana had five each, while Illinois and West Virginia had two each and Arkansas three. Most of the lynchings were for rape and several of them were burned at the stake.

THE coils seem to be tightening around Jett and White. If they are guilty, as appears from the evidence so far adduced, death on the gallows will be almost too good for them; and if as Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd asserts, "they are hired assassins," it should be brought out who hired them and the condign punishment meted out to them.

A KANSAS CITY, KAS., man asks divorce because his wife assaulted him at various times with a meat cleaver, a butcher knife, a stony poker, a table knife, a club, a hoe and an ax. Some men are so unappreciated. This was doubtless the woman's way of exhibiting her affection.

THEY like bolters in the Clay district. Cook Faulkner, who used to be considered the best democrat in the mountains went to the enemy and was made circuit judge. He ran again for the nomination, carrying every precinct in the six counties except three. His majority is 3,774.

THE Glasgow Times voices our sentiments to a t when it says: "The Lexington Democrat is just three years old; and it is just about the best paper, and edited by just about the best man in the State."

It took almost a column of Sunday's Courier Journal to give the names of recent arrivals at Crab Orchard Springs, where a delightful crowd is now quattered. Better spend a week or so there and rest up.

SAUFLEY—Charles Harvey Sauley, youngest son of Mrs. Nannie Sauley McClary, died Sunday night from an over dose of medicine after intense suffering of 20 hours. He was 17 years old and was an exceptionally bright and affable youth. No more popular boy ever lived in Stanford and his death has cast a gloom over the entire town. The procession to Buffalo cemetery yesterday afternoon was one of the largest ever seen here and certainly the burial was one of the saddest. In June Charley Sauley graduated with honors from Stanford High School and a month later he passed a rigid examination at Annapolis for midshipman. His chances for getting in the navy were very flattering. He was the idol of his mother who is today crushed by her great loss. May the good Lord give her strength to bear the great burden. Two brothers, Shelton M. and Robert C. Sauley, and an aged grandfather also survive and in their affliction they have universal sympathy. Rev. O. M. Huey read a Psalm and made a prayer at the grave, but the funeral sermon will be preached at the Baptist church Sunday when all young people are invited to come.

Go to John P. Jones' and see the new things in ladies' neckwear. He always handles the latest and best.

MARRIAGE.—Mr. John K. Baughman, one of the most substantial citizens in the West End, and Miss Ella Carson, an exceedingly handsome and lovable young woman of the same section, went to Louisville yesterday where they were to have been made husband and wife. The I. J. extends congratulations.

CIRCUIT COURT begun at Liberty with a light docket. There is very little civil business to be attended to and the criminal business is lighter than usual. There are two murder cases—Lee for killing Woods and Ed Reid for killing Smith. Eight persons in jail will likely be tried. The crowd yesterday was about up to the average.

HON. W. C. BELL, next circuit judge of this district, spent Saturday at the Hustonville fair where he was warmly received by hundreds of voters. He made a splendid impression and that he will get a rousing majority from that end of the county we have no doubt. Lincoln county is solid for him and his running mate, Hon. Chas. A. Hardin.

COMPLIMENTARY tickets to the Columbia fair have on the back of them a good half tone of W. H. Hudson, the dead president of the association. Mr. C. S. Harris, the clever secretary has our thanks for one. Our thanks are also due Ed A. Chilton, secretary of the London Fair for a "comp." The date of the first named fair is Aug. 18, four days and the latter, Aug. 26, three days.

SOLD OUT.—Dr. W. N. Craig has purchased from Mr. J. Warren Hocker his half interest in the drug store of Craig & Hocker and he will continue the business at the same stand. Mr. Hocker is yet undecided as to what business he will engage in, but we hope he will not leave Stanford, as he is one of our best citizens. That Dr. Craig will keep up the good standard of the firm there is not a doubt.

THE HUSTONVILLE FAIR.—The glorious rain of Friday knocked the fair out for a time, but it was postponed until Saturday, which proved a typical fair day. A good crowd was present and enjoyed to the fullest extent the splendid card which appears below. People were feeling good over the rain and they left their cares at home and put in the full day seeing the splendid horses exhibited. As usual, the West Enders were unstinted in their hospitality and if there was a person present who did not have a good time and get a big dinner, we failed to hear of him. At 5:15 in the afternoon Saxton's great band played "Home Sweet Home," good byes were said and the fair of 1903 was a pleasant memory.

It is more than probable that the association will lose some money—not a great deal, however. The dry weather of Wednesday and the wet weather of Thursday and Friday cut quite a figure. The officers, directors and others who worked for the furtherance of the enterprise are deserving of much congratulation and they are receiving an abundant share of it.

John B. Coffey, the clever president of the Columbia fair, was on hand. Few gentlemen have more friends in the West End than "John B."

T. L. Carpenter's black cattle exhibited at the Hustonville fair were the subjects of much favorable comment. It would be hard to find a better herd than he has.

Sloan Eastland prevented a panic by swinging to his two-year-old which made every effort to run away while being shown. It took grit and strength but Mr. Eastland showed that he had an abundance of both.

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. Theodor's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Theodor's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.
